PRIVACY STATEMENT

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to The Green Party's Privacy Statement. The Green Party has been advocating for improved data protection rights for many years and the Green Group in the European Parliament played a significant role in negotiating the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This statement describes how we handle and use your personal information and your rights in relation to that information. Under the GDPR, the Green Party is the controller of that information.

The Green Party ("The Party", "we", "our" or "us") is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

This Privacy Statement explains why and how we will use the personal information that we have obtained from you or others, with whom we share it and the rights you have in connection with the information we use. Please read the following carefully.

This statement describes the way we handle and use the personal information that we obtain from all the different interactions you may have with us as a political party, including when you engage with our constituency groups, social media pages or website currently located at www.greenparty.ie or when you contact us.

This Privacy Statement has been created to demonstrate the Party's commitment to the protection of your data and to be transparent in how we deal with it. The Party will process your data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) the Data Protection Act 2018 and related legislation.

3. WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH

We only disclose your personal information outside the Party in limited circumstances. If we do, and where relevant, we will put in place a contract that requires recipients to protect your personal information, unless we are legally required to share that information. Any contractors or recipients that work for or with us will be obliged to follow our instructions. We do not sell your personal information to third parties.

When we use third-party service providers, we only disclose to them any personal information that is necessary for them to provide their services and only where we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it other than in accordance with our specific instructions as a Data Controller.

We will also share your personal data with officers of the Party including Elected Representatives, Candidates for Elections, Returning Officers and Spokespersons. Data is shared with these officers for the sole purpose of executing the work of the Green Party and for no purposes other than the legitimate, political interests of the party.

The Green Party will not share personal data with any other entity or organisation without prior consent from the data subject or another appropriate legal basis. At some point in time we may request your permission to share personal data with another related organisation, such as the European Green Party.

4. TRANSFERS OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION OUTSIDE OF EUROPE

Typically, we do not transfer your personal information outside of Europe. However, we may rely on adequacy decisions by the European Commission for data transfers to countries outside the EEA such as to the UK.

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers which are located within the European Economic Area (EEA).

If at any time we transfer your personal information to, or store it in, countries located outside of the EEA (for example, if our hosting services provider changes) that are not subject to an adequacy decision, we will amend this statement and notify you of the changes. We will also ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place for that transfer and storage, as required by applicable law. This is because some countries outside of the EEA do not have adequate data protection laws equivalent to those in the EEA.

5. SECURITY AND LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

We take the security of your personal information seriously and use a variety of measures based on good industry practice to keep it secure. Nonetheless, transmissions over the internet and to our website, and our social media pages may not be completely secure, so please exercise caution. When accessing links to other websites, their privacy policies, not ours, will apply to your personal information.

We employ security measures to protect the personal information you provide to us, to prevent access by unauthorised persons and unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage.

The transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do everything possible to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of any personal information during its transmission to us online. You accept the inherent security implications of using the internet and will not hold us responsible for any breach of security unless we are at fault.

Our website and social media pages may contain links to other websites run by other organisations which we do not control. This statement does not apply to those other websites, so we encourage you to read their privacy statements. We specifically disclaim responsibility for their content, privacy practices and terms of use, and we make no endorsements, representations or promises about their accuracy, content or thoroughness. Your disclosure of personal information to third party websites is at your own risk.

6. THE PERIODS FOR WHICH WE RETAIN YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We are obliged to retain certain information to ensure accuracy, to help maintain quality of service and for legal, regulatory, fraud prevention purposes.

Other information will be retained for no longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was obtained by us or as required or permitted for legal, regulatory, fraud prevention and legitimate purposes.

We will not hold your personal information in an identifiable format for any longer than is necessary for the purposes for which we collected it. For certain purposes we retain your personal information indefinitely (e.g., to suppress marketing messages).

Member Data

In the case of members, the party will retain personal data for one year following the end of the membership period where the data subject has not engaged with the party in a specified way. After an ordinary Green Party membership lapses there is a period of one year in which a member can renew their membership without losing their voting rights, known as the grace period. After this period lapses former members may become party supporters and continue to receive communications from the Party in line with their communications preferences, which they can change at any time. They can also choose to independently end their support of the Party by unsubscribing. You can unsubscribe by following the details in section 9 of this statement.

Supporter Data

While supporters continue to engage with the party through specified activities, we will maintain their personal data on file so that we can contact them about our work. If after 1.5 years a supporter has not undertaken any specified activities, we shall seek consent to continue contacting the data subject as a party supporter. If there is no response, or the data subject replies negatively their personal data will be anonymised. If the data subject replies positively their records will be kept on file.

Financial Record Retention

The financial records of all data subjects must be kept on file for the purposes of audit; however, it will not be possible to identify the benefactor from this data. In some cases, the Party will be prohibited from anonymising a data subject's identifiable records. Personal data, including names and addresses must be kept on record where specified by the SIPO guidelines, such as where larger donations are concerned. Similarly, personal data must be retained by the party where there are active or potential legal proceedings.

Where donors are not party members, and there is no legal requirement to keep their personal data on file, non-financial data will be anonymised after a period of five and a half years.

7. DATA PROCESSING WITH YOUR CONSENT

Where we use consent as our legal basis for processing your data, or process special categories of your data on the basis of your explicit consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. For further information on when we rely upon consent please see Section 2 "Personal Information We Collect About You".

There are two ways that you can easily withdraw your consent, you can:

- Press the 'Unsubscribe' option contained within our email communications to you,
- Contact our Data Protection Officer directly by post, email and telephone and using the contact details on section 9 of this statement.

We will maintain a record of your withdrawal of consent.

8. COOKIES

We use cookies to provide you with a tailored experience on our website and to gather statistics on how our online services are used so that we can improve our services. Some of our cookies may also collect personal data.

Please visit our cookie page for more information about how we use cookies on our websites and services. We always seek your consent to use cookies.

9.YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

This section explains the rights you have in respect of your personal data and we have processes to enable you to exercise these rights.

| Your Data Rights | Explanation |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Right of Access | If you want to know if we are processing personal data relating to you and to have access to any such personal data, you can contact us using the details below. In order to furnish you with a copy of your personal data that we hold we will need to verify your identify. This is known as a Data Subject Access Request. |
