We will use your personal information to comply with our legal obligations:

- To take any actions in relation to health and safety incidents required by law.
- To record details of donors to the Party in accordance with the Standards in Public Office (SIPO)

4.3 WHERE NECESSARY FOR US TO PURSUE A LEGITIMATE INTEREST

We may use and process your personal information where it is necessary for us to pursue our legitimate interests as a Political Party for the following purposes:

- Processing necessary for us to promote the party and measure the reach and effectiveness of our campaigns;

4.4 WHERE NECESSARY FOR US TO FULFIL A CONTRACT

We will use your personal information where this is necessary for us to perform our contract with you or to carry out any pre-contract steps you've asked us to so that you can enter into that contract, for the following purposes:

- To process your payment card or bank details when taking payment for your Membership or when providing a refund

4.5 WHERE PROCESSING IS IN YOUR VITAL INTERESTS

We may need to use your personal data in certain limited, emergency situations to ensure your wellbeing.

5. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION BY US

We only disclose your personal information outside the Party in limited circumstances. If we do, and where relevant, we will put in place a contract that requires recipients to protect your personal information, unless we are legally required to share that information. Any contractors or recipients that work for or with us will be obliged to follow our instructions. We do not sell your personal information to third parties.

We may disclose your information to our third-party service providers and agents for the purposes of providing services to us or directly to you on our behalf, including the operation and maintenance of our Site, and social media pages.

When we use third-party service providers, we only disclose to them any personal information that is necessary for them to provide their services and only where we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not to use it other than in accordance with our specific instructions as a Data Controller.

We will also share your personal data with officers of the Party including Elected Representatives, Candidates for Elections, Returning Officers and Spokespersons. Data is shared with these officers for the sole purpose of executing the work of the Green Party and for no purposes other than the legitimate, political interests of the party. The Green Party will not share personal data with any other entity or organisation without prior consent from the data subject. At some point in time we may request your permission to share personal data with another related organisation, such as the European Green Party.

6. TRANSFERS OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION OUTSIDE OF EUROPE

Typically, we do not transfer your personal information outside of Europe. However, we may rely on adequacy decisions by the European Commission for data transfers to countries outside the EEA such as to the UK.

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers which are located within the European Economic Area (EEA).

If at any time we transfer your personal information to, or store it in, countries located outside of the EEA (for example, if our hosting services provider changes) that are not subject to an adequacy decision, we will amend this statement and notify you of the changes. We will also ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place for that transfer and storage as required by applicable law. This is because some countries outside of the EEA do not have adequate data protection laws equivalent to those in the EEA.

7. SECURITY AND LINKS TO OTHER WEBSITES

We take the security of your personal information seriously and use a variety of measures based on good industry practice to keep it secure. Nonetheless, transmissions over the internet and to our Site, and our social media pages may not be completely secure, so please exercise caution. When accessing links to other websites, their privacy policies, not ours, will apply to your personal information.

We employ security measures to protect the personal information you provide to us, to prevent access by unauthorised persons and unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage.

The transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do everything possible to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of any personal information during its transmission to us online. You accept the inherent security implications of using the internet and will not hold us responsible for any breach of security unless we are at fault.

Our Site and social media pages may contain links to other websites run by other organisations which we do not control. This statement does not apply to those other websites, so we encourage you to read their privacy statements. We specifically disclaim responsibility for their content, privacy practices and terms of use, and we make no endorsements, representations or promises about their accuracy, content or thoroughness. Your disclosure of personal information to third party websites is at your own risk.

8. THE PERIODS FOR WHICH WE RETAIN YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We are obliged to retain certain information to ensure accuracy, to help maintain quality of service and for legal, regulatory, fraud prevention purposes.

Other information will be retained for no longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was obtained by us or as required or permitted for legal, regulatory, fraud prevention and legitimate purposes.

We will not hold your personal information in an identifiable format for any longer than is necessary for the purposes for which we collected it. For certain purposes we retain your personal information indefinitely (e.g. to suppress marketing messages).

8.1 MEMBER DATA

In the case of members, the party will retain personal data for five and a half years following the end of the membership period where the data subject has not engaged with the party in a specified way. After an ordinary Green Party membership lapses there is a period of one year in which a member can renew their membership without losing their voting rights, known as the grace period. After this period elapses former members may become party supporters and continue to receive communications from the party in line with their communications preferences, which they can change at any time. They can also choose to independently end their support of the party by unsubscribing.

8.2 SUPPORTER DATA

While supporters continue to engage with the party through specified activities, we will maintain their personal data on file so that we can contact them about our work. If after 4.5 years a supporter has not undertaken any specified activities, we shall seek consent to continue contacting the data subject as a party supporter. If there is no response, or the data subject replies negatively their personal data will be anonymised. If the data subject replies positively their records will be kept on file.

8.3 FINANCIAL RECORD RETENTION

The financial records of all data subjects must be kept on file for the purposes of audit, however it will not be possible to identify the benefactor from this data. In some cases the party will be prohibited from anonymising a data subject's identifiable records. Personal data, including names and addresses must be kept on record where specified by the SIPO guidelines, such as where larger donations are concerned. Similarly, personal data must be retained by the party where there are active or potential legal proceedings.

Where donors are not party members, and there is no legal requirement to keep their personal data on file, non-financial data will be anonymised after a period of five and a half years.

9. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You have certain rights in respect of your personal data and we have processes to enable you to exercise these rights.

9.1 RIGHT OF ACCESS

This is known as a Data Subject Access Request or a SAR in short. If you want to know if we are processing personal data relating to you and to have access to any such

If you believe that we hold inaccurate personal data about you, please contact us using the details below. Depending on the type of personal data you believe is inaccurate, we may ask you for further proof to ensure that the personal data is being corrected properly. If we are satisfied that the personal data is inaccurate, we will make the necessary changes.

9.3 RIGHT TO ERASURE

You also have the right to request erasure of your personal data or to restrict processing (where applicable).

However, this right does not apply where we have to comply with a legal obligation or where we need personal data for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. In addition, if you opt out of marketing communications or have previously opted out of marketing communications, we have to keep a record of such opt out to ensure that we don't contact you again in the future.

9.4 RIGHT TO RESTRICTION

You have a right to request that processing of personal data is restricted in certain circumstances. However, we shall still continue to process the personal data for storage purposes, for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Where we are relying on legitimate interests as a legal basis to process your data, you have a right to object to such processing on grounds relating to your particular situation.
